PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES AND HAPPENINGS IN TOWN.

Doings of the Various Sets in this City and Its Immediate Vicinity—The Goings and Comings and Other Items of General Interest.

Frank M. Burris came up from the metropolis Monday evening.

Sam Haven made a short trip to the Bay City the first of the week.

Mrs. Rowell spent a few days this week with San Francisco friends.

Emmett Gottenberg of the Mission Garage transacted business in San Francisco Monday.

Rev. Wood, pastor of the local Methodist Church, was in the city one day this week.

Miss Ramona Granice was the guest of relatives in the metropolis over the week-end.

Carl Dresel, the well-known viti-culturist of this valley, was in Santa Rosa last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rae Hunter are entertaining a little native daughter in their home, which was born on Monday.

Mrs. M. Chelini, who has been seriously ill the past week, is now reported by Dr. Gobar, her physician, to be on the mend.

The second installment of city taxes will become delinquent next Monday at 6 p. m. if not paid between now and that time.

A special meeting of the Sonoma Chamber of Commerce was held in the City Hall last night to take action on incorporating the same.

F. C. Poulson's blacksmith shop on Napa street east of the post-office is being converted into a neat little store, which will be occupied by Mrs. Poulson's Little Racket Store, some time the coming month.

The second annual grand ball of the El Verano Development Association will be held in the Hotel Bellevue ball room on the evening of Saturday, Feb. 21st. The members are taking a lively interest in the ball, which will be without a doubt a success.

E. Fromme, engineer of the Sonoma Brewing and Ice Co., came over from his farm between this city and Napa, last Tuesday, and started the ice-making machinery in motion. He will turn out fifty tons of ice for February delivery and will then return to his farm for another short vacation.

District Attorney Clarence F. Lea was here from Santa Rosa last Saturday on official business.

The Bachelor Maids met at the home of Miss Albina Eraldi, one day this week, and being that the afternoon was so warm and beautiful the Maids took advantage of it by indulging in a hike to the hills of picturesque Sonoma. They had a big basket filled with dainties which they enjoyed very much as they sat by a running stream. After the repast the Maids gathered ferns and returned late for tea, but nevertheless very happy.

Congregational Church, Feb. 1st

Everything has a cause. There is a reason for non-attendance at church services. This is the condition not only with us, but it is the condition all over the country. No one is proud of it nor should we be. When I was a boy there were professed infidels but there are no deniers of God today among normally constituted creatures. Even the swearers use God's name so that they can make the environment yield a sulphurous suggestion but still they do not crowd the churches. If there is a Christian's God, then the people are wrong who refuse to give him public worship, not worship behind the Sunday newspaper or a fine magazine. God calls for public worship. Not the kind that wears pajamas and slippers. Some women might be excused, before they thought it best to be men. We will pass that over, but the men, the lords of creation, never, never would we excuse them. We would make church going as the poll tax.

Few men know how to use their liberty. Don't forget that people are not as great as their chance to do right. We are going to tell Sonoma what disease it has on next Sunday at the eleven o'clock service. The town council is invited. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30 p. m., Mrs. Price is leader. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. God willing. We obey God in church matters when it pours down Pacific dew. We will give our rule on how to talk. All the men both male and female are invited. T. M. PRICE.

Membership is Rapidly Increasing—Those Who Joined the Organization the Past Week

On account of the weather the charter of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce will remain open until February 2d. In addition to the names of members published in last week's issue the following have signed up:

F. Dobbel, Wm von Hacht, Major Bowhill, Carl Dresel, Dr. Hays, A. Froment, F. Helberg, Ray But-
Watt, Fuller Rochat, G. H. Holz, J. J. Dunbar, Mrs. Carrie Burlingame, S. Campanella, G. F. Warren, Mrs. Marie Clewe, Rich-Waller Co., Mr. Whalan.

Among these names will be observed that of Mr. S. Campanella, a leading merchant of Santa Rosa and a former business man of this city. In sending in his name for admission as a member, Mr. Campanella writes as follows:

Santa Rosa, Cal., January 24th. Mr. John F. Picetti, Secretary of Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce, Sonoma, Cal. Dear Sir:—In the columns of the Sonoma Index, I read that the charter of membership will close on the 26th. I have lived in Sonoma for many years and always like to see the dear old city progressing, so I am taking these means to apply for an honorary charter member of the Chamber of Commerce. If this is possible for a non-resident of Sonoma I wish you would accept my application to become a member. Kindly let me know about the amount and trusting to hear from you with a favorable reply. I remain yours respectfully, S. CAMPANELLI.

MARIN COUNTY AND THE BLACK POINT CUT-OFF

Its Promotion League Taking a Lively Interest in the Proposed New Highway

N. E. Clemensen, secretary of the Marin County Promotion League, went to Napa Wednesday as a representative of that body to meet with Charles G. Blaney and Engineer Harrison of the State Highway Commission and a delegation from Napa and Sonoma counties, to consider the proposition of building a branch of the state highway from Napa City, through Sonoma and Marin counties to Sausalito, completing a circle of road 180 miles in length, beginning at San Francisco and running to San Jose, thence to Martinez, across to Benicia and on to Napa. This would make one of the finest scenic boulevards in the state and would be a wonderful attraction to autoists and especially to the thousands of strangers who will visit the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915.

The State Highway Commission estimates the cost of this road at $300,000 and agree to put up $125,000 of the amount if Napa county will furnish $65,000, Sonoma county $75,000 and Marin county $35,000. Sonoma county has already agreed to do its share and Napa county has practically agreed to contribute the amount asked. All that now remains is for Marin county to do its share.

The plan of the State Highway Commission is to run the road from Napa to Black Point, where they will construct a bridge, the estimated cost of which is $61,000. This bridge is to be built and maintained by the Highway Commission out of the funds proposed to be put up by the commission and the three counties.

The supervisors of Marin county have already agreed to expend $15,000 toward the building of a bridge at Black Point. The building of a bridge at Black Point would practically necessitate the building of a road by the county from Black Point to Ignacio, where the main line or state highway runs, which would cost at least $15,000 or $20,000 and both bridge and road would have to be maintained by the county. Under the plan of the State Highway Commission all this will be done by them. That, then, relieves the county of the expense of building bridge and road and the cost of future upkeep.

It would therefore seem that the cheapest and best thing to do is for the supervisors to accept the plans of the State Highway Commission and appropriate the $35,000 necessary.

At the meeting at Napa Wednesday, the representatives of that county contended that Marin should stand as much of the expense of building as their county, inasmuch as the assessment roll of Marin was several millions greater than that of Napa. Mr. Clemenson met argument with argument and convinced them that as the people of Napa were to receive far greater benefits from the road, they could well afford and should bear the expense asked of them by the Highway Commission.

Prospects now seem excellent for the construction of this branch of the state highway, which will undoubtedly become one of the most popular auto roads in California. Marin County Tocsin.

I hereby appoint my niece, Georgie Andrews, to pay all my bills and collect all accounts due me up to date. FREDERICK LEIX, M. D.

"OLD CHARLIE" DIES A LONELY DEATH

Became Food For Voracious Coyotes on Right of Way of the Southern Pacific Co.

"Old Charlie," for twenty years a familiar figure along the southwestern section of the Sunset Route, and known to Southern Pacific trainmen everywhere, is dead, much to the grief of those who knew him. He was known by no other name, and his real identity will probably always be shrouded in mystery.

"Old Charlie" was mentally deficient in many ways, but he had a keen eye for track trouble, and while not employed by the Southern Pacific, performed voluntarily and diligently the work of track walker on a continuous journey, that usually found him somewhere between El Paso and Yuma. He was known to members of every train crew, station agents, and practically all of the section crews in the southwest, and everyone did their best to lighten the burdens of his life. For twenty years he took the railroad under his care, and scores of times has inspected block signals and roadbed, all the time sending in painstaking and what to his mind were essential reports on conditions as he saw them. The management received them in the spirit in which he sent them and good humoredly thanked him for his efforts.

Whenever "Old Charlie" chose to enter a railroad restaurant he got a good meal, and trainmen were lenient when he wanted a lift on his weary trip across the country. Recently his health began to fail, and although many wanted to look out for him in some substantial way, he refused all help and indignantly insisted that he must keep on with his work of inspection.

A few days ago a dead body was found near the right-of-way four miles east of Benson. It had been mutilated by coyotes. A closer inspection showed it to be that of "Old Charlie."

ELECTRIC SERVICE FOR SCHELLVILLE.

Railroad Commission to Take up the Matter Immediately With the Electric Companies

H. H. Sanborn, rate expert of the State Railroad Commission, has written the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce that his commission will soon take up the matter with the electric companies to give Schellville an electric light and power service. Schellville and the adjacent territory has long been in need of this service and the decision of the Railroad Commission will be received with rejoicing by the people in that section of Sonoma Valley, who surely ought to come into their own.

Elks to Give Dancing Party

The local members of the Elks Lodge will give an informal dancing party in Union Hall next Saturday evening, February 7th. Elaborate preparations are being made and it is expected that a large crowd from all over Sonoma Valley will be present. LANDSBOROUGH NOW ON TRIAL.

Both Defense and Prosecution Summon Many Witnesses From This Valley to Testify.

The case of the People of the State of California vs. Jas. A. Landsborough, charged with illegal registration, is now on before Judge Seawell and a jury in the Superior Court of this county.

The defendant is represented by attorney Rolfe Thompson of Santa Rosa while the State will prosecute through District Attorney Clarence F. Lea.

The following have been summoned as witnesses to testify in the case, about half of the number being for the defense and the other half for the prosecution: Geo. Breitenbach, Louis Breitenbach, S. P. Woodworth, F. Duhring, G. S. Harris, Carl Dresel, Thos. Morris, R. Watt, J. Wilson, M. P. Akers, F. Schell, Fred Helberg, J. Tate, Mrs. P. Stofen, Mrs. Lulu Emparan, L. H. Green, Dr. Thomson, Chas. Potter, J. M. Cheney, Robt. Pope and Jos. Ryan.

This case is attracting wide interest here from the fact defendant Landsborough as a reformer through the columns of his newspaper here, offered a reward of $25 for the conviction of any person for the very same crime which he is alleged to have committed at the recall election of Supervisor Weise last fall.

Sonoma Drum Corps Hold Banquet

The Sonoma Drum Corps, one of the largest drum corps in this section of the state, held a stag party and banquet in Woodman Hall Tuesday evening. The hall was decorated in Native Son colors together with flowers and greens and presented a most striking appearance. Cards were enjoyed during the evening, also story telling, singing and dancing. Excellent music was furnished by M. Topete and Fred. Hansen. Following was the menu:

Potato salad, olives, salami, ham, chicken, roast beef, fruit, pie, cake, nuts, tea, coffee and the best Sonoma Valley red and white wines. After this sumptuous banquet three cheers were given by the members in honor of their organization and it was early in the morning before the affair broke up.

Vote for and Talk for the Grammar School Bonds.

Elsewhere in these columns will be found the call of the Sonoma Grammar School Trustees for an election to be held on Saturday, Feb. 21st, at which will again be submitted to the voters the proposition to bond the district for $30,000 for a much-needed sanitary and up-to-date school house. These bonds were voted on December 20th and carried by a vote of nearly three to one, but unfortunately the election was declared illegal owing to the hours named for keeping open the polls being contrary to the law. Hence the election is being held over again. To the voters of the district we would say, talk for and vote for the bonds up to the very hour of closing the polls. If you do this the bonds will carry all but unanimously this time.

Sonoma Valley and Its Beautiful Waterfalls.

The stormy weather the past month has converted the various mountain streams that flow down from the mountains skirting Sonoma Valley on the east and west into raging, tumultuous torrents. Three of these mountain streams, located but a few miles from Sonoma are noted for the trout fishing they afford to anglers, but it is not generally known, but it is nevertheless a fact, that the principal attraction of these three mountain streams are their beautiful waterfalls. These are known as the Hooker, Nathanson and Fowler creek falls. These vary from 110 to 150 feet in height, and since the recent storm present a magnificent sight.

The Fowler creek fall is perpendicular and drops 110 feet into a bowl-shaped pool at the foot of the precipice. This beautiful fall, which may be appropriately named "the bridal veil fall of the Sonoma Valley," is located near the headwaters of Fowler creek in the mountains on the western side of the valley on the L. L. Lewis ranch a few miles from El Verano. This waterfall is reached by a wagon road over private property which is accessible to visitors.

The Hooker falls are located near Cave Dale, and are accessible by a picturesque driveway over the mountains overlooking the valley. These attractive falls are but a few miles distant from Boyes, Fetters and Agua Caliente Springs. At the present time they present a magnificent spectacle.

The Nathanson creek waterfalls are located about three miles east of Sonoma on the Gericke ranch. These are not sheer drops, like the Hooker and Fowler falls, but are a series of tumbling and roaring cascades as they rush down a shelving cliff amid showers of spray. The Nathanson falls are reached by a private wagon road passing through the Tower, Malani, Bane and Gericke ranches, or during the open season for trout one may fish up stream to the very base of the falls.

Should February prove to be pleasant these attractive waterfalls ought to be taken in by every lover of nature visiting our beautiful valley before the high water of winter and early spring subsides.
